

Job fair at Camp Darby

Finding a job is being made easier with a job fair at Camp Darby on June 20th, 10 a.m.- noon at the PX plaza.

According to Stephen Zglinicki, Employment Readiness Program manager, prospective employees can visit the display which will have availability of jobs, primarily NAF.

“Currently, some of the jobs openings include: Laborer, Recreation Aid (Bowling), Bartender and Custodial worker; but there is also a job opening for an assistant hotel manager at Sea Pines Lodge on <http://cpolrhp.belvoir.army.mil/eur/employment/index.htm> that will close on June 19th,” said Zglinicki.

He added that families returning to the States, spouse seeking employment should post their resume on MilitarySpouseJobSearch.org.

“Our Army Spouse Employment Program Partner Corporations and Agencies are trained in how to search for resumes on MSJS.org as an additional way to recruit Military Spouses for their open job vacancies; posting your resume on this website is yet another way to get noticed by Recruiters employed by our Partners,” said Zglinicki. “As an added benefit, Military Spouses can find links to various career tools, job search articles, and military friendly organizations on this easy-to-use job and resume database.”
